Re: Extension to Certification

This letter is to advise you that due to unforeseen circumstances the ISO 9001:2015 re-certification audits of Temprecord International Limited have had to be postponed for a short period of time. This may result in the current ISO 9001:2015 certificate expiring, prior to a new certificate being issued.

I would like to assure Temprecord International Limited and all its customers and trade partners that SGS will extend the ISO 9001:2015 certification from the expiry date of the previous certificate until the date that the new certificate is issued.

This decision is based on the evidence of previous audits confirming the confidence that can be placed in the Management Systems of the Temprecord International Limited. This extension to the validity of certification is conditional upon satisfactory arrangements being made to complete the audits of Temprecord International Limited by the end of December 2020.

Yours sincerely,

Carlos Pastor
